

2024 Synod Assembly Elections - Nominees

- We will be electing a people to serve on the Consultation Committee, the Committee on Discipline, the Synod Council, and as voting members to the 2025 ELCA Churchwide Assembly
- Below you will find position descriptions and the names of those nominated for those positions
- Short bios of nominees (in alphabetical order) are below the descriptions

Committee on Discipline

Electing 1 Rostered Minister to complete a vacated position, term ending 2025; 2 Rostered Ministers, terms ending 2029; and 2 Lay Persons, terms ending 2029

The Committee on Discipline of this synod consists of 12 persons, of whom six shall be rostered ministers (pastors or deacons) and six shall be laypersons, who are elected by the Synod Assembly for a term of six* years without consecutive re-election. (*Due to a year without a synod assembly, we are electing members to 5-year terms this election process.) Members of this committee may be called to participate in a hearing when charges are brought against governing officers, ministers of Word and Sacrament, ministers of Word and Service, congregations, and/or members of a congregation. (Thankfully, members of this committee are rarely called upon.) (Full description in Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA.)

Rostered Ministers

Rev. Nyla Schoeld – 1-year term
Deacon Marie Preftes-Arenz – 1-year term
Rev. Jory Mickelson – 5-year term
Rev. Glen Aaberg – 5-year term

Lay Persons – 5-year term

David Foster-Koth
Bob Spencer

Consultation Committee

Electing 2 Rostered Ministers and 2 Lay Persons, terms ending 2029

The Consultation Committee consists of 12 persons, of whom half shall be ministers of word and sacrament and half shall be laypersons. These members are elected by the Synod Assembly for a term of 6* years without consecutive reelection. (*Due to a year without a synod assembly, we are electing members for 5-year terms this election process.) When there is disagreement among factions within a congregation on a substantive issue that cannot be resolved by the parties, members of a congregation shall have access to the synodical bishop for consultation after informing the chair of the Congregation Council of their intent. If the consultation fails to resolve the issue(s), the Consultation Committee of this synod shall consider the matter. (Full description in Chapter 20 of the ELCA Constitution and Chapter 17 of the Synod Constitution.)

Rev. Beth Eden (nominated for Consultation Committee)

Lutheran Church in the San Juans + Pastor | F | Over 30

Roles/Activities in local congregation: Pastor

Roles/Activities in the synod/churchwide/wider community: While a member of the Rocky Mountain Synod, Beth served on their Synod Council, Candidacy Committee, as the Reference & Counsel Committee Chair. In the NWWA Synod, Beth serves as the Co-Dean of the Skagit-Isle Cluster.

Gifts/Skills: Beth has served many years as a pastor. She has a deep concern for the well-being of rostered professionals – and lay people. She is an excellent listener, and she is fair-minded.

Rev. Paul Eldred (nominated for Synod Council and Churchwide Assembly Voting Member)

Central/Seattle + Pastor | M | Over 30

Roles/Activities in local congregation: Pastor, Central Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity – Seattle (2022-Present); Pastor, Holy Cross Lutheran Church – Bellevue (2018-2022)

Roles/Activities in the synod/churchwide/wider community: Vice President, Lutheran Campus Ministry to the University of Washington (2018-2023); Participant, Leadership on the Way (2022-2023); Member, NWWA Synod Bishop Nomination and Election Task Force (2018-2019); Co-Chair, NWWA Synod Gathering coordinating team (2017-2018)

Gifts/Skills: Paul is attentive and conscientious, engaging with the nuances of complex situations, and deeply listening to the opinions of others while ensuring that the voices of those most often unheard are included in the conversation. Having personally experienced rejection from the Church, Paul is keenly aware of those who face systemic or implicit marginalization and has always borne witness to the power of Christ's transformational and unconditional love in a relatable and accessible way. He tirelessly advocates for wider inclusion following Christ's gospel and example of radical love and grace. He now sees it as part of his role in the Church to use his experiences in leadership, governance, and board work to enact that same grace and love he first received in Jesus' name.

John Fairbairn (nominated for Consultation Committee)

Faith/Bellingham + Lay Person | M | Over 30
